

Hay-Lush-Ka Check Sheet

Hay-Lush-Ka is a voluntary awards program that provides additional opportunities for parent and child to share experiences in working, learning and earning together. Part of the fun is that both the parent and child must participate or complete the activities individually so that they can earn the awards together.

Color	Tribal Awards: Small Beads (Awarded by your Tribe Chief)	Done!
Purple	Starter: Join the Algonquin Longhouse Indian Guides
Yellow	Names: Memorize and recite your tribes' members and Dads real names and Indian Guide names. (Up to 8 pairs for larger tribes.)
Orange	Program Goals: Memorize and recite the Indian Guides Motto, Seven Aims, and Pledge.
White	Craft: Make or donate property needed by Tribe, Make an award for a Nation campout, Make a "significant" craft project and show to Tribe (Excludes School Projects)
Green	Campout: Attend a nation campout in spring, winter, or fall.
Gold	Recruitment: Invite a friend to a tribal meeting; Participate in or help with a local festival, walk in a local parade while distributing recruitment materials.
Blue	Nature Report: Take a nature walk and tell the tribe what you saw on the walk; Participate and report to tribe on what you did at a Nation Campout; take a canoe trip; Attend an individual tribal overnight.
Black	Songs: Learn the songs ' America ' and ' Friends Forever ' and sing them for your tribe. Dads, this means you too!
Red	Meetings: Host a tribal meeting; Participate in and report on another tribe's meeting or outing; Be "significant contributors" by helping your Chief in planning or running a Nation event

After child and parent have earned all 9 Tribal Awards, they may continue on to the Advanced Awards

Color	Advanced Awards: Big Beads (To be awarded by the Hay-Lush-Ka Council)
Dark Red	Community Service: Organize and/or participate in a significant way in one or a series of community service or ecological events. Be prepared to report on the event and answer questions relating to the "who, where, what, why and how" of the event(s) and how your participation made a positive impact on someone else's life.
Tan	Nature Report: Collect and be able to identify 10 things from any nature-related groups such as the following: Trees - Birds - Mammals - Fish - Insects - Planets - Constellations - Rocks - etc. The items can be collected in person, by photograph or by book or internet research.
Dark Brown	Outdoor Skills: Complete an advanced outdoors skill (to be individually selected) with minimal adult assistance: • Cooking a meal over a campfire • Catching a fish • Starting a fire with a single match using only fire materials found in nature • Learning rope knots • Testing the quality of water in a pond • Master the ability to orient and/or navigate using a map, compass, the sun, moon, planets, constellations and/or other natural landmarks. (Outdoor skills do not be demonstrated live to the council, pictures work very well) Alternative: Complete a second project described under the Nature Report category
